Wirecard and Triumph expand European collaboration

- Online shops in further Scandinavian countries

Aschheim (Munich). Triumph International AG, one of the world's largest manufacturers of lingerie and underwear, will continue to place its confidence in the integrated payment services supplied by Wirecard AG as it expands its online shops to include Denmark and Sweden. As a specialist in electronic payments across all sales channels, Wirecard will assume responsibility for processing payments via various methods and for risk management in the new shops. In addition, Wirecard's collecting model facilitates a seamless combination of online payments for all countries from a single source. Triumph already uses Wirecard solutions for its online shops in countries including Austria, Finland, France, Germany, the Netherlands and the UK.

Andreas Kerschner, Head of Sales Consumer Goods at Wirecard, explains: "We are delighted to continue our effective collaboration with Triumph and support them on their path to success with innovative solutions in the fields of payment, risk management and banking."

The working partnership between the companies first began in 2012.
